

VOLUME 95– OCTOBER 2009

NEXT FRIENDS MEETING

We will have our Friends meeting Tuesday October 13th, in the Community Room of the library at 7 pm. Please join us to discuss our 2009-2010 plans and take a role in the organization. This will be an exciting year with our library hosting some fantastic Abraham Lincoln themed programs. Come to find out what's in store for the coming months. The meeting will start promptly at 7:00; so please bring your ideas and energy to assist the Friends!

MEMBERSHIP NEWS

The Library is sending out electronic monthly news blasts with info on all upcoming programs. Stop by the Reference Desk and leave your e-mail info to participate and receive the newsletter and Friends updates via e-mail. Visit scotlib.org for library news!

Upcoming ideas to expand membership besides initiating a museum pass program are to offer a special category children's membership. We welcome your suggestions on these topics as we explore a joint venture with the Fanwood Friends to kick-off the museum program. We have 107 paid members, with renewals for 2010 coming up—please encourage your friends to become a Friend and support the library.

BOOK BAGS

Go green—purchase a Friends blue book bag to tote your favorite reading materials home from the library or use at the farmers market. The bags are on sale for $5 at the circulation desk. Encourage your book clubs to purchase the bags and join Friends to promote library activities and reading in our community.

BOOK SALE 2010

The sale dates are March 13 and 14th for the Children's book sale, and Members Preview Night March 17, with the sale following the 18th, 19th, and 20th. New ideas for 2010 include a half price sale all day on Friday and expanded publicity to get the word out and boost attendance.
