About the Friends of the Library

Our Mission:

To support the Library by fund-raising and advocacy and to encourage the use of the Library

Who We Are:

A committed group of Scotch Plains residents and friends recognizing the Library as an important asset to our community organized Friends of the Library in 1997.

What We Do:

Friends make meaningful contributions to our library by sponsoring programs and providing funds for much needed materials and special projects.

How We Do It:

We raise funds through the Book Sale, other creative promotions, and members' dues.
